BELLIS, HUBERT

Brussels

Gold Medal: Amiens, 1877; Melbourne, 1880

(The master painter of l'Essor, who not only has the palette of Flemish masters, but their various and majestic touches, is Mr. Hubert Bellis. What a pleasure for the eyes to look upon his fishes, crustacea and his molusks, his flowers and fruits. Depicting with delicateness each petal of the flowers, without falling into minuteness respecting the velvety appearance of the fruit, he makes the mouth water with his superb Zeeland oysters, and one fancies to inhale the perfumes of his raspberries. Not one detail is neglected. The materiality of each object is established. It suffices not only to obtain the exact tone, but the vibration of colors is needed to give life and poetry to objects devoid of them.—Extract from the "Etoile Belge."
